

The Frog Prince

One fine evening, a young princess went for a stroll in a wood. When she came to a cool pond, she sat down to rest. She had a golden ball in her hand, which was her favourite plaything.

After a while, she threw the ball up high and it fell down into the pond. The princess looked into the pond, but it was so deep that she could not see the bottom of it. She began to weep, and said, "If I could only get my ball again, I would give all my fine clothes and jewels, and everything that I have in the world."

While she was speaking, a frog put its head out of the water, and said, "Princess, why do you weep so bitterly? I do not want your pearls, and jewels, and fine clothes, but if you will love me, and let me live with you and eat off your golden plate, and sleep on your bed, I will bring you your ball again."
