

Year group: Nursery
Term: Spring 1

Communication, Language & Literacy

- To use language to share feelings, experiences and thoughts
- To listen and join in with stories
- To retell and sequence stories
- To enjoy rhyming and rhythmic activities
- To distinguish between different marks

Books – Peace at last by Jill Murphy
Whatever Next by Jill Murphy
Owl Babies by Martin Waddell

Mathematics

- To anticipate and order specific time events such as home time/ snack time
- To use everyday language related to time
- To join in number rhyme and songs
- To recite number names in sequence
- To recognise that a group of things changes in quantity when something is added or taken away

Physical

- To run and climb safely and confidently
- To show control in holding and using jugs to pour, hammers, books and mark making tools
- To become independent in self-care

What I will be learning through the theme of Night & Day

Personal, Social & Emotional Development

- To seek out others to share experiences
- To initiate play with peers
- To express own feelings such as sad, happy, scared, worried
- To communicate freely about own home and community

Understanding the World

- To remember and talk about significant events in their own experience
- To comment and ask questions about aspects of their familiar world such as where they live or the natural world
- To acquire basic skills in turning on and operating some ICT equipment
- To know how to operate simple equipment such as cd player, remote control

Expressive Art & Design

- To join in singing favourite songs
- To use movement to express feelings
- To use available resources to create props to support role play
- To begin to use representation to communicate
- To begin to make believe by pretending